

Are these weeds growing in your garden?

These garden escapes are invading our local bushland. They are easily spread by birds, wind and water run-off from gardens into nearby bush, where they displace the native plants. Lake Macquarie Landcare needs your help to stop their impact on our local bushland.

Ochna

Easter Cassia/ Senna

Coastal Morning Glory

Turkey Rhubarb

Ground Asparagus

Green Cestrum

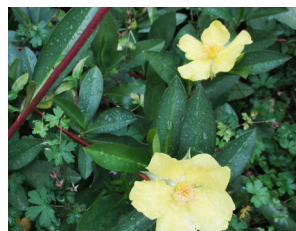

Natives to plant instead

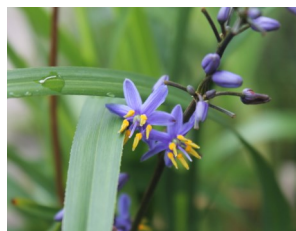

A range of local native plants are available for sale at the Lake Macquarie Landcare nursery in Booragul.

Coastal Wattle
Acacia sophorae

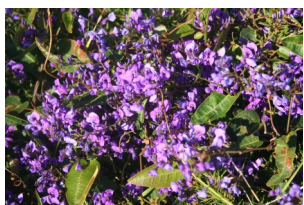

Guinea Flower
Hibbertia scandens

Blue Flax Lily
Dianella caerulea

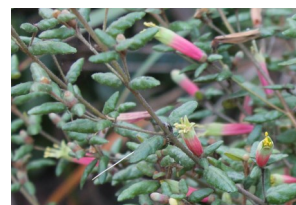

Cut-leafed Daisy
Brachyscome multifida

Purple Coral Pea
Hardenbergia violacea

Silky Grevillea
Grevillea sericea

Native Fuchsia
Correa reflexa

Coastal Rosemary
Westringia fruticosa

For more information about this and other Landcare projects across the City, contact Lake Macquarie Landcare, proudly supported by Lake Macquarie City Council.

Lake Macquarie
Landcare

lakemacquarielandcare.org.au

lro@lakemac.nsw.gov.au

4921 0392

Cnr Toronto and Five Islands Roads, Booragul

